

HEADS MESSAGE

I once heard from Gervase Phinn, a once time school inspector and now author of multiple books that the most effective way to engage children is to make the content funny and a little bit naughty or rude. I'm not sure this would be advice for a teacher planning a lesson on long division but there is no doubt that topics slightly out of ordinary definitely grab children's attention.

This week, the Eco team have excelled themselves with their fund-raising for the organisation 'Toilet Twinning'. They have delivered an assembly, planned (and built!) their own stalls and engaged the whole of the Hales community in a week of fun for a good cause. The Bake sale on Thursday was a huge success and everyone enjoyed their treat for break-time. We are really proud of their desire to help others and the initiative they have shown - fantastic traits for the future. They have yet to total up the takings for the week (a chance to practise their arithmetic too) but we are sure it will have been a great success.

Kind regards,

Mrs G Bowser
Headteacher

YEAR 6 TRIP TO BLETCHLEY PARK

On Tuesday, Year 6 headed to the home of wartime code breaking - Bletchley Park. During their visit, their skills in Morse Code and encryption were tested as they took part in an intelligence and interception exercise to locate German U-Boats in the Atlantic. Earlier in the week, pupils had watched 'The Imitation Game' and discussed the role of Alan Turing and those working at Bletchley in the creation of the Bombe Machine and the impact of this upon the Allied war effort. A fascinating day, combining our Maths, Computing and History!

YEAR 6 PRODUCTION OF 'WE WILL ROCK YOU!'

This week was an exciting week for the cast of Year 6's upcoming Summer Production of 'We will rock you!' Having completed auditions and various drama workshops, the real 'work' can now start; setting the many scenes, choreographing dances, learning lines and singing songs. This is a picture of our first full cast scene - as set on Tuesday. More information to follow...!

WELL DONE ARIANNA!

Arianna in Year 4 took part in a recent Golf World Championship tournament in Malaysia over Christmas.

She competed against 20 other highly talented golfers from Thailand, Singapore, Hong Kong, Philippines, USA and Great Britain and came 6th with a 5 stroke difference between her and the top 3. Well done Arianna you should be feel very proud.

UNIVERSITY OF WARWICK SCIENCE GALA

Here is Madeleine in Year 4 had a fantastic evening Madeleine this year at the University of Warwick Science gala. Such an inspiring event for any child wishing to get involved in Science or Engineering. Here she is building basic molecular structures!
